2013

Xiquel was founded by Kgopotso Riba at the age of 25, with big dreams of developing SaaS for African businesses.

2015

Xiquel became partners with global OEMs, Microsoft and IBM, on world-class business platforms, such as Microsoft Dynamics and IBM's DataPower.

2017

The development of Ezra 360 SaaS began with the aim of integrating, digitizing, and automating businesses across Africa.

2019

Xiquel partnered with one of the top four global System Integrators to implement a CRM solution across 16 countries for one of the leading private commercial banks.

2021

Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, which forced many companies to close down and resulted in many lives lost, Xiquel experienced a 30% growth in headcount.

2023

Xiquel delivered a DIRCO travel app, open to 47 million South African citizens, providing support through 147 consular offices across the globe.
